Mr. Ferguson is the Director of the Buildings and Efficiency Technologies Division at the National Energy Technology Laboratory (NETL) in Pittsburgh, PA. The Buildings and Efficiency Technologies Division manages advanced buildings projects and activities for the DOE Office of Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE).

Before joining NETL in July 2006, Mr. Ferguson served at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Office in Philadelphia from 1994 through 2006 in a variety of roles, including Acting Director, Deputy Director, Team Leader, and Project Manager.

Mr. Ferguson previously worked from 1989 through 1994 as an Operations Research Analyst at the Naval Air Warfare Center, Aircraft Division in Warminster, PA.

Mr. Ferguson received a Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Operations Research/Management Science in 1990, and a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering Technology in 1988, from Temple University in Philadelphia.

Mr. Ferguson also served proudly in the United States Army and in the Pennsylvania Army National Guard.
